Each report type provides:

MONTHLY PRODUCTION AND SALES BY END-USE REPORTS

Tracks production and sales figures for current month and year-to-date. These industry sales data can be used to track overall market growth rates and trends in domestic and export markets as well as key detailed end-use market segments.

PRELIMINARY SALES AND PRODUCTION REPORTS

Provides an early snapshot of the prior month's overall performance, with reports typically published within 10 business days following month-end. Production, total sales and export data are presented for the current month.

INVENTORY REPORTS

Inventory data can offer insight into the strength of a resin business. Includes opening and/or closing inventory data for the current period.

CAPACITY REPORTS

Capacity data can be used in combination with production and/or sales figures to calculate and track operating rates and trends.

HISTORICAL REPORTS

Resin production and sales data are also available electronically from 2001. Sold separately. Contact ACC for pricing information and discounts or view details on the subscription order form.
